Consent for Delivery by Electronic Mail Transmission

California law requires that the Eastview RB Community Center (“Association”) deliver to its members certain notices and documents by either general delivery/general notice” or “individual delivery/individual notice.” General delivery is performed by posting the notice in the common area location designated each year in the annual policy statement, inclusion in a billing statement or newsletter, or by individual delivery. Individual delivery is provided if required by law, or upon the member’s request. Individual delivery may be accomplished by first class mail, or by electronic methods, such as email, if the recipient has consented to receiving email.

The Association is providing you with the ability to consent to receive Association notices and documents by email or other electronic delivery. If you are willing to receive Association notices via email, please complete and return this form to the Eastview RB Community Center at the above address or scan and email the form to EastViewRB@att.net.

Consent for Delivery by Electronic Mail Transmission

As of Jan 1, 2020, the Association's membership list is required to include each member's name, Association address, mailing address, and email addresses. Civil Code §5220 provides members with an opportunity to "opt-out of sharing their contact information from the membership list with a member who requests a copy of the membership list.

The undersigned member requests to "opt-out" of sharing the following information with any member who requests a copy of the membership list (check all that apply):

- Member's name
- Member's Association address
- Member's mailing address
- Member's email address
- All of the above

Please note that choosing to opt-out will only prevent disclosure of your contact information to members who request the membership list but will not prevent such members from contacting you through the Association.
